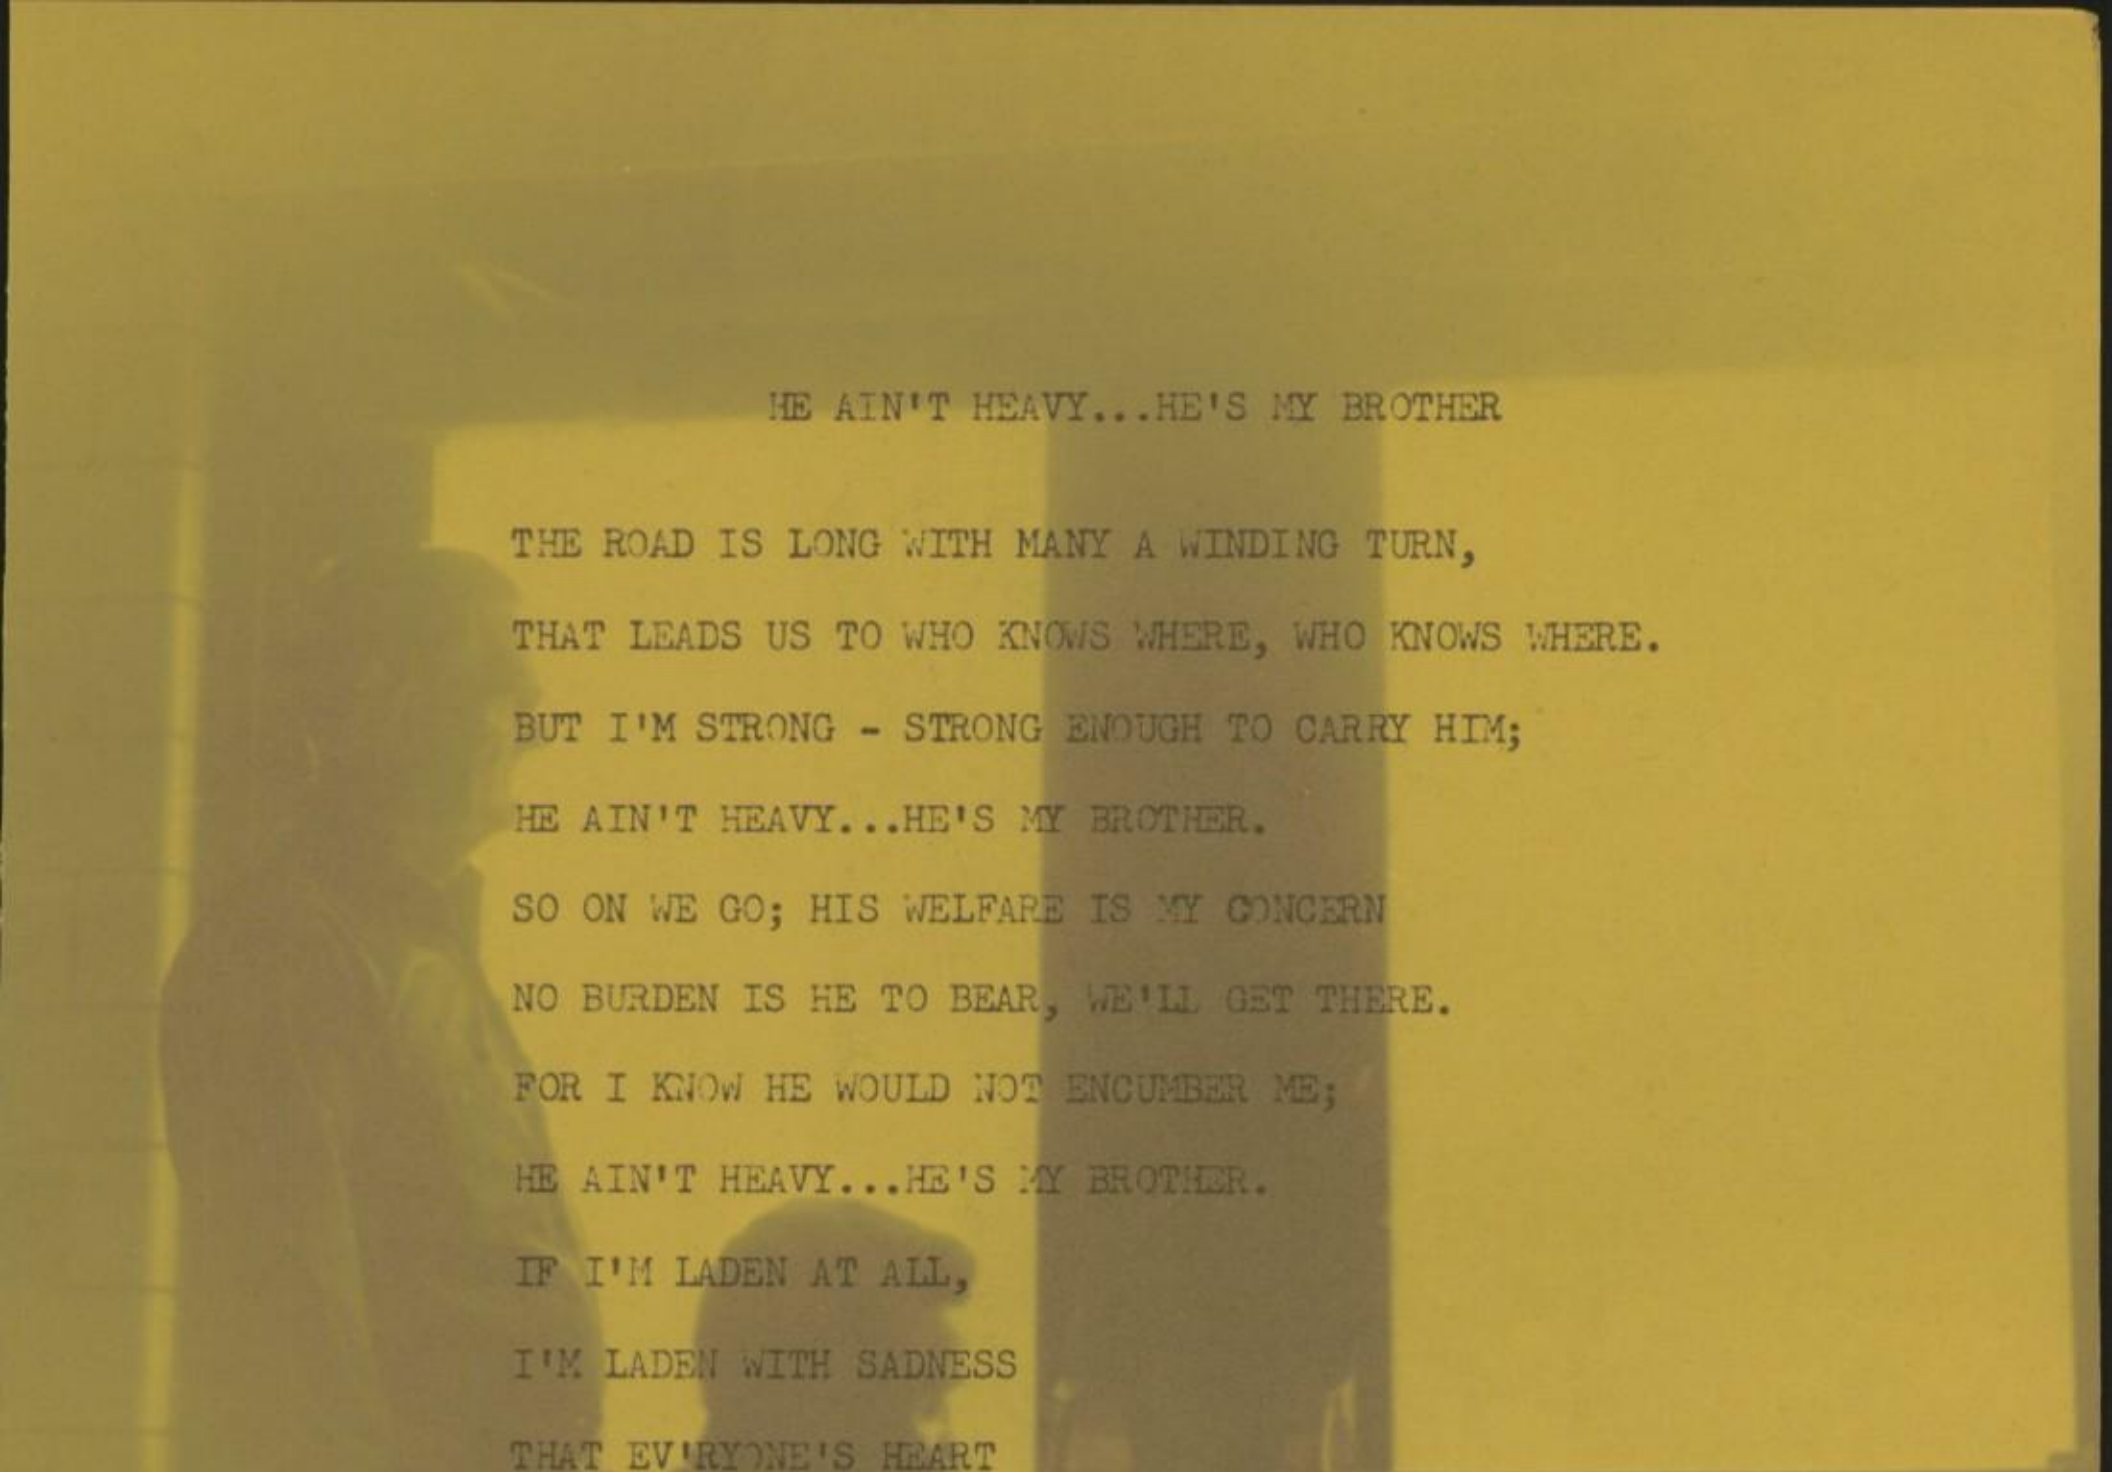
"Reaching Out"

What is life at Midview High School? Is it nothing more than cold, brick walls and stereo-typed students--the ringing of bells and shuffling through crowded halls? Can sleeping in study hall and writing out last minute cheat sheets truly be called our sole existence here? We laughingly say that it is..., but somewhere and somehow we know high school is more than that. During our three years at MHS we automatically become involved in one of life's many games. We become entangled in the game of "reaching out".

Though we are often bold and brazen, there is a great deal of uncertainty and lack of confidence within our minds. This is why we "reach out" to learn. Our learning cannot be merely supplied by ancient texts so teachers strive to form lines of communication. They "reach out" to touch wandering minds and uneager scholars. Surprisingly, we find ourselves responding.

Why do we try so diligently to be individuals, yet love the closeness of belonging to the mass? One of the greatest inspirational experiences of high school is an intent basketball game. Excitement hits its' peak when the single voices of an entire student body blend to form one shattering roar. Our entire duration at Midview is like a never ending basketball game. We search for personal distinction, but desparately need the companionship of blending with the mass. Laughing or crying together, we "reach out" to others in search of ourselves.

For the 1971 graduates, there are many familiar faces never to be seen again. Their captured smiles will soon be forgotten in the pages of dusty yearbooks. There are no more bells...or crowded halls...or uneager scholars. Remaining with us, however, will always be the ability to laugh... cry...communicate...learn...and, oh yes,..."reach out".



HE AIN'T HEAVY...HE'S MY BROTHER

THE ROAD IS LONG WITH MANY A WINDING TURN, THAT LEADS US TO WHO KNOWS WHERE, WHO KNOWS WHERE.
BUT I'M STRONG - STRONG ENOUGH TO CARRY HIM;
HE AIN'T HEAVY...HE'S MY BROTHER.
SO ON WE GO; HIS WELFARE IS MY CONCERN
NO BURDEN IS HE TO BEAR, WE'LL GET THERE.
FOR I KNOW HE WOULD NOT ENCUMBER ME;
HE AIN'T HEAVY...HE'S MY BROTHER.
IF I'M LADEN AT ALL,
I'M LADEN WITH SADNESS
THAT EV'RYONE'S HEART
ISN'T FILLED WITH THE GLADNESS
OF LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER.
IT'S A LONG, LONG ROAD
FROM WHICH THERE IS NO RETURN.
WHILE WE'RE ON OUR WAY TO THERE,
WHY NOT SHARE?
AND THE LOAD DOESN'T WEIGH ME DOWN AT ALL;
HE AIN'T HEAVY...HE'S MY BROTHER.

From the song HE AIN'T HEAVY...HE'S MY BROTHER, words by Bob Russell, music by Bobby Scott, Copyright © 1969 by Harrison Music Corp., Hollywood, California. Used by permission. International copyright secured. All rights reserved.

Midview High School, like most schools, is a community in itself. Members of the Midview community interact with one another in forming their personality, their character, their very being.

To change one aspect of Midview, to remove even one irritation or one enjoyment, would be to change every individual at Midview, to change them permanently, to lose something that can never be recovered. Each person's actions, each person's beliefs, makes a contribution to the spirit, the very soul of the community.

Midview's soul was altered with the tragic loss of two students, Monica Bruce and Louis Fleming.

It is especially hard for us to accept the concept of death in such young people. Youth is the magical, mystical plateau of life from which we find new adventure, raise families, grow old, and meet death naturally.

For death to come so early in life, as was the case for Monica and Louis, is a very real tragedy. Monica and Louis will never have the chance to experience so many things that life has to offer. And we will never again be able to experience Monica and Louis.

iam

A teacher and a student. Experience reaching out to innocent youth. An educator who takes the hand of his pupil and guides him through the knowledge he has gained hoping to stimulate that young impressionable mind. The main objective is preparation for the future, as the old pass into oblivion and the young carry on.

Daryl Bollinger was a teacher who wanted to help the young people he loved by reaching out through music to those who will assume the responsibility of the future world.

Man's nature is to dream--to hope. Mr. Bollinger did both but perhaps let his dreams and hopes become too grandiose--expected too much and found many goals unattainable. But he did not fail. His success lies in the people who opened their minds to a man who wanted to touch their souls. His time to perform was short but he dedicated himself to his duty and never lost his hope in mankind.

Music is an interpretive art that requires the performer to let his emotions take control and bring the notes to life. As a director, Mr. Bollinger's job was to guide the young singer to his own soul which would, if reached, take the performer into a sensitive emotional world he may never have experienced before. Maybe he reached only a few, but those few are enough evidence to prove Daryl Bollinger fulfilled his purpose as a teacher and choral director.
